

ORCID FIRST

2-5370

-0372 CLASS

POSTAGE

Sending this message was important to us

"the Getty Center [...] is essentially a fire-proof fortress"

We considered ourselves to be a powerful culture

"It might seem untouchable. In many ways, though, it is"

This place is not a place of honor

"a shining example of construction made to withstand the elements"

No highly esteemed deed is commemorated here

Nothing valued is here

quotes from "Art Critique"
A closer look at how the Getty Center protects its collection from the threat of a fire. Katherine Keener Jan 11, 2021