while Getty's oil money was going to a museum so it wouldn't go to his wives the operating part was getting sold to Texaco and funding global warming denial as the fortress on the hill rose so the people rose slowly and without billions but they rose what did they do? Older people admired the youth that is what they do surely the youth are the hope for humanity because the adults aren't surely the youth will plant trees pick up litter walk out of school say something inspiring maybe heroically fight a fire
