What is valuable? certainly not lives cops in the US kill 1,000 people a year but who cares half of type 2 diabetics can't afford insulin and diabetes kills 100,000 people a year but who cares covid has killed 1,000,000 people in the US our leaders are saying take off your mask buddy you are crazy a hysteric the pandemic is over you're costing the economy money so when 2 people set themselves on fire to protest global warming people said these art protests are getting more attention than people literally killing themselves and yes they are
