movements have charismatic leaders with oratory like a sparkling power line or are horizontalist like a brush fire what is this movement who are the eight skilled organizers no one knows them they were chosen because they get along with money and maybe they are great ~~too~~ let's hope so for all our sakes because money has made them our leaders
"The decision to communicate with the police was a strategic one" uh oh "We view the police as professionals" uh oh have they talked to anyone?

quotes from "Statement on Extinction Rebellion's relationship with the police" 7/1/20
