

People who have worked to help the earth know the police, from the less lethals and freezing water cannon at Standing Rock to the mining, timber, cattle goons who kill thousands every year in the global south the problem with cops is not just "they are institutionally racist" their job is to defend capital, fossil is capital, we lost years of organizing to this idea that police "may or may not act with integrity" their integrity is our death